Developed with the help of leading sports nutritionists, we offer you products that cannot be beaten for effectiveness in providing the 'competitive edge' that cyclists are looking for. As further endorsement to the quality of the product range, the pro cycling teams Cervelo Test Team and Team Radio Shack will be using the products during the 2010 cycling season.

ZipVit was founded in 1999 and quickly grew to establish itself as the one of the UK's leading suppliers of vitamins and minerals. This success was founded on providing great value, premium quality, effective products, and excellent customer service. The newly developed sports nutrition range builds on these core values and has been developed by leading food scientists and doctors, applying the very latest scientific developments in sports nutrition. Production quality is also paramount, and ZipVit is one of the few companies to manufacture all of its products to the rigorous standards of the British Retail Consortium (BRC).

The result of this attention to detail is a range of easy to use great tasting and easily digested products. Formulated to maintain health and significantly improve recovery and performance, the ZipVit range easily meets the needs of recreational, amateur and professional athletes.
