1 GARMIN EDGE 820 £329.99

The feature that interests me most in this gloves-compatible touchscreen GPS is one I'm sure will be rolled out wider: GroupTrack, live tracking of your Garmin-using ride companions. garmin.com

2 CANNONDALE SLATE APEX £1699.99

While gravel bikes are everywhere, the Slate sets itself apart with a monoblade 'fork' and sensibly wide (42mm) tyres on 650B rims. This rigid model is new. cannondale.com

3 LINDARETS X WOLF TOOTH BOOSTINATOR $24.95

These spacers and screws convert your mountain bike's 15x100mm front hub and 12x142mm rear hub to the new Boost standard (110mm and 148mm). Some re-dishing required. wolfteethcomponents.com

4 XLC LIFESTYLE CYCLE SHOE £54.99

A sober-coloured, SPD-compatible shoe for town or touring use at a reasonable price. The recessed-heel sole is nylon while the upper is micro fibre, not leather. raleigh.co.uk

5 RIDGEBACK PANORAMA TANDEM £1599.99

We mentioned the dearth of entry-level tandems last year. Here's a new one from Ridgeback: it's aluminium, with 27-speed Sora/Deore gearing, TRP Spyre brakes and 700x38C Marathons. ridgeback.co.uk

6 SKS LOCKCAGE £TBC

Never forget your café lock: this retractable-cable immobiliser unscrews from the base of its integral bottle cage. sks-germany.com

7 SCHWALBE MARATHON SUPREME TL-EASY £66.99

Tubeless: not just for mountain bikers and roadies, apparently. You can now have an easier-rolling, self-sealing touring/city tyre. Sizes: 37-622 or 42-622. schwalbe.com
