

SHOP WINDOW

Peruse new products without clicking that 'accept cookies' pop-up yet again. Dan Joyce selects Club kit for Christmas?

Godfrey Sports' last date for guaranteed Xmas delivery is 24 Nov. Visit shop.cyclinguk.org

1 Circe EOS £3,500+

Like Airnimal's Joey, the compact, carbon-forked EOS tandem will take 24in or 26in wheels, which are fitted to the Tour and Sport models respectively. Also available as a frameset, it doesn't fold but can be ordered as a separable.

cyclecentric.com

2 Voile Straps £6.50+

Invented to bind skis together, these polyurethane straps trump velcro ones because they stretch, so hold things tight to your bike. Get the nylon buckled ones to avoid frame scratches. Various lengths.

voile.com

3 Stanforth Pamira £2,995

I first saw this Reynolds 853/725/631 rough-stuffer at Bespoked 2019. It takes 27.5x2.4 or 29x2.2in tyres and is designed for 2x10, 3x10 or Rohloff gearing. Jones bars and Microshift thumbies are nice touches.

stanforthbikes.co.uk

4 Shimano Tiagra £439.98 (pair of levers & callipers)

Hydraulic braking percolates down to Tiagra, which now includes shorter-reach levers for smaller hands (ST-4725-L/R; normal is ST-4720-L/R).

shimano.com

5 SKS Bluemels 75 U £59.99

Mudguards for your MTB or fat-tyred town bike? These are 75mm wide, good for 27.5 or 29in tyres up to 2.6in.

sks-germany.com

6 CatEye GVolt 70 £70.99

Since it meets Germany's StVZO standard, the 70-lux GVolt 70 is legal as your only front light in the UK too. You'll probably need to buy it online... from Germany.

cateye.com

7 Carradice Bikepacking Seatpack £90

"The original bikepacking company" now has bikepacking bags. This 16-litre Cordura seatpack has a saddle-rail-mounted support to prevent drooping and swaying.

carradice.co.uk

More online

Check out our reviews of the latest bikes and gear online at:

cyclinguk.org/cycling-advice