GOING THE EXTRA MILE AWARDS

Volunteers' Week from 1-7 June is a chance every year to thank and recognise those wonderful people and groups who help make the world better by bike. During the week, we will announce the winners of our Going the Extra Mile Volunteer Awards 2023 in four categories – most inspiring group, individual, and campaign activity, as well as the most engaging volunteer-led event of the year. cyclinguk.org/volunteer

ACTIVE TRAVEL FUNDING AGREED

It's been a time of change and uncertainty in Scottish politics but following Humza Yousaf's swearing in as first minister and his appointment of Kevin Stewart as transport minister, the Scottish Government has recommitted to spend at least 10% of the transport budget on active travel. Ministers also published a new strategic Framework for Cycling aimed at boosting cycling for local journeys.

BCQ FACEBOOK GROUP

If you were inspired by last issue's article by Mark Wedgwood on cycling across all 204 Ordnance Survey maps, why not take part in Cycling UK's own British Cycle Quest (BCQ) and complete the challenge of visiting all 402 checkpoints throughout England, Wales and Scotland? There is now a BCQ Facebook group run
